SCHEDULE No: 28 NOTES FORMING PART OF THE ACCOUNTS*1. Significant Accounting Policies*A. The significant accounting policies are as follows:*a. Basis of accounting

The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention, on the accrual basis of accounting and in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles ('GAAP') in India and comply in all material respects with the Accounting Standards referred to in Section 211(3C) of the Companies Act, 1956 to the extent applicable and in accordance with provisions of the Companies Act 1956.

b. Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting policies requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statement and the reported accounts of revenues and expenses for the years presented. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

c. Fixed assets

Fixed assets are stated at their original cost of acquisition / installation less accumulated depreciation. Cost includes purchase price and all other attributable costs of bringing the assets to working condition for intended use.

d. Depreciation

Depreciation on fixed assets is provided on straight line basis at the rates specified in Schedule XIV to the Companies Act, 1956.

e. Investments

There are NO Long term investments.

f. Inventories

Inventories comprise raw material, work-in-progress, finished goods and related accessories & equipments and are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

g. Sales

Revenue from sale of goods is recognized when significant risk and rewards in respect of ownership of products are transferred to customers.

h. Interest Income

Interest income on term deposits is accounted for on accrual basis over the period of deposits.

i. Taxation

Income tax comprises current tax and deferred tax. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences of timing differences, subject to the consideration of prudence. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the tax rates enacted or substantively enacted by the Balance Sheet date.

j. Provision for Retirement benefits

Contribution to defined scheme i.e. provident fund scheme is charged to profit & loss account. Provision for Gratuity has not been made and will be accounted for on payment basis.

k. Earnings per share

The earnings considered in ascertaining the Company's EPS comprises the net profit after tax.

1. Provisions

Provision is recognised when an enterprise has a present obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation and in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions are determined based on management estimates required to settle the obligation at the balance sheet date. These are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current management estimate.

2. The Company has carried out its tax computation in accordance with mandatory accounting standard AS 22 – 'Taxes on Income' issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Provision for current tax comprises Minimum Alternative Tax (MAT). The company is entitled to carry forward it to be set off against future tax liabilities. Keeping in view the significant accumulated losses carried forward, MAT credit has not been recognised in the accounts.

3. As per information available with the company, none of its creditors comprise small scale industrial undertakings to which the company owes dues, which are outstanding for more than 30 days as at the Balance Sheet date. Further none of the creditors comprises micro, small and medium enterprises which comprise amounts outstanding for more than 45 days as at the Balance Sheet date.

4. Previous year figures have been regrouped, wherever necessary to conform to the current year's presentation.
